THE ORGAN

was presented to the School in its

JUBILEE YEAR, 1954

by

F. ERIC DAWES, Esq., M.A., Mus.D., F.R.C.O.,
Governor,

in memory of His Parents, FRANK and LYDIA DAWES.

The building of the Organ Chamber and the alteration of the Assembly Hall to accommodate the Organ were made possible by the generosity of many friends of the School who contributed to a Jubilee Fund, established for that purpose.

The School thanks the large number of subscribers to the Jubilee Fund, and, in particular, expresses its gratitude to Dr. Dawes for his great generosity in giving the Organ.

OPENING CEREMONY

Chairman of the Board of Governors: Alderman B. T. ROBBINS, J.P., C.C.

HYMN (With pianoforte)

YE holy Angels bright,
Who wait at God's right hand,
Or through the realms of light
Fly at your Lord's command,
Assist our song
Or else the theme
Too high doth seem
For mortal tongue.

Ye blessed souls at rest,
Who ran this earthly race,
And now, from sin released,
Behold the Saviour's Face.
His praises sound
As in His light
With sweet delight
Ye do abound.

Ye saints, who toil below, Adore your heavenly King, And onward as ye go Some joyful anthem sing; Take what He gives And praise Him still Through good and ill, Who ever lives!

My soul, bear thou thy part,
Triumph in God above,
And with a well-tuned heart
Sing thou the songs of love!
Let all thy days
Till life shall end
Whate'er He sends,
Be fill'd with praise.

CHAIRMAN'S EXPRESSION OF THANKS DR. F. ERIC DAWES, M.A., F.R.C.O., will respond

PRAYERS of Thanksgiving and Dedication
The Rev. Canon H. Fletcher, M.A.,
Vicar of Oldbury

HYMN (With organ)

ANGEL-VOICES ever singing,
Round Thy Throne of light,
Angel-harps for ever ringing,
Rest not day nor night;
Thousands only live to bless Thee
And confess Thee
Lord of might!

Thou, Who art beyond the farthest
Mortal eye can scan—
Can it be that Thou regardest
Songs of sinful man?
Can we know that Thou art near us,
And wilt hear us?
Yea, we can!

Yea, we know that Thou rejoicest
O'er each work of Thine;
Thou didst ears and hands and voices
For Thy praise design;
Craftsman's art and music's measure
For Thy pleasure
All combine.

In Thy House, Great God, we offer
Of Thine own to Thee;
And for Thine acceptance profer
All unworthily
Hearts and minds and hands and voices,
In our choicest
Psalmody.

Honour, glory, might and merit
Thine shall ever be,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
Blessed Trinity!
Of the best that Thou hast given,
Earth and Heaven
Render Thee.

OPENING ORGAN RECITAL

by

F. ERIC DAWES, Esq., M.A., Mus.D., F.R.C.O. (Organist of the Church of the Redeemer, Birmingham)

I. TOCCATA IN F

J. S. Bach (1685-1750)

Composed at the age of 33, while Bach was Master of the Music at the Duke of Saxony's Chapel at Weimar, this piece shows an unflagging vigour and spacious design that Bach rarely exceeded. The two "canons" for the hands, alternating with long pedal solos at the beginning, are noteworthy.

2. AIR AND GAVOTTE

Samuel Wesley (1766-1837)

Samuel Wesley was the son of Charles Wesley, the hymn writer, and father of S. S. Wesley, the well-known Church music composer. He himself was a prolific and gifted composer, and one of the greatest organists of his day. The introduction of Bach's music in England was chiefly due to him.

- 3. SCHOOL CHOIR: "Thine, O Lord, is the Greatness"

 [James Kent]
- 4. LARGO (From Symphony, "From the New World")

 Dvorák (1841-1904)

Dvorák, the leading representative of Czecho-Slovakian music, found his inspiration largely in the folk-tunes of his native Bohemia. This Symphony was the result of his visit to America, and the Largo is said to express "the grand depths of primeval forests."

5. "VILLANELLA"

John Ireland (1879-

"Villanella" (Italian—"A country girl") was composed in 1904 when Ireland became organist of St. Luke's, Chelsea, and forms a charming example of his early style. The name was used by early composers to describe pieces of a free, light-hearted type.

- 6. SCHOOL CHOIR: "Praise Ye the Lord, Ye Children" Christopher Tye
- 7. TOCCATA FROM FIFTH SYMPHONY Widor (1844–1937)

Charles Marie Widor, a native of Lyons, studied the organ with Lemmens in Belgium. From 1870 to 1933 he was organist of St. Sulpice, Paris, and his ten "symphonies"—among the most important modern organ compositions—did much to establish the French Organ School. The Toccata is a brilliant "moto perpetuo," commencing loudly, sinking to a soft murmur in the middle and working up to a grand climax, with the pedals in octaves, at the end.

HYMN

ALL people that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell, Come ye before Him, and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed; Without our aid He did us make; We are His flock, He doth us feed. And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise, Approach with joy His courts unto; Praise, laud, and bless His Name always, For it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good; His mercy is for ever sure; His truth at all times firmly stood, And shall from age to age endure.

To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
The God Whom Heav'n and earth adore,
From men and from the Angel-host
Be praise and glory evermore.

ORGAN RECITAL

TO THE ASSEMBLED SCHOOL

by

F. ERIC DAWES, Esq., M.A., Mus.D., F.R.C.O.

to follow the Morning Service on Friday, May 18th, 1956

I. TOCCATA AND FUGUE IN D MINOR

I. S. Bach (1685-1750)

One of the finest, and in some respects, the most striking of Bach's organ works. The Toccata is true to type—"a prelude consisting of florid passages and chords which an organist extemporised before a fugue." After the very free Fugue, the style of the Toccata returns to form a brilliant ending.

2. "HOLSWORTHY CHURCH BELLS"

S. S. Wesley (1810-1876)

This piece is based on the chime which Wesley was asked to compose for the bells of Holsworthy Church in Devon. He afterwards extended the tune into a set of variations for the organ. He was, for a time, Organist of Gloucester Cathedral.

3. "MR. BEN JONSON'S PLEASURE"

A Study on an Old English Tune

Robin Milford (1903-

The fanciful name—in 16th Century style—refers to the author of the song, and the piece forms a fitting modern tribute to the lovely old tune.

4. PRELUDE ON THE WELSH TUNE: "RHOSYMEDRE"

R. Vaughan Williams (1872-

The composer's sure touch with the part-writing and harmony has here produced one of the most perfect examples of modern organ music extant; it exactly catches the feeling of beauty springing up amid the cold and grey Welsh Hills.

5. MARCH ON A THEME OF HANDEL

Guilmant (1837-1911)

Born at Boulogne, Guilmant later settled in Paris, where he was organist at "La Trinité" for many years. He was a great recitalist, and a worthy, if lighter-weight, member of the great French Organ School. The March is based on "Lift up your Heads" from "The Messiah." For the Trio there is a short fugato, and the two themes are then worked together to end with the full power of the organ.
