

A.F.S. Hoses Put

VICTORY IN SKIES

At Fete with Savings Theme

SUMMER DRIVE ENDED, WINTER CAMPAIGN INAUGURATED.

Foaming jets of water from four hoses operated by A.F.S. men formed two silvery "V"s against Oldbury's smoky sky and struck the keynote of the garden fete at the County High School on Saturday.

The victory signal was the fitting conclusion to an A.F.S. display which was included in the programme of what proved to be one of the most crowded fetes ever held in Oldbury. Planned as a means of extending War Savings activities throughout the borough, the event was sponsored by the local Savings Committee.

A.F.S. MEN JUMP TO IT IN THE DISPLAY

JUDGING BY EXPRESSIONS THE CHILDREN ENJOYED IT MOST